
Digital Nomads Collective - Global Handbook

About this Community

The Digital Nomads Collective is a peer led community for people who live and work on the move. We maintain this global handbook so members can navigate visas and housing, find reliable internet, stay safe, and be good guests wherever we land. We're not your lawyer or accountant but we are a network of practical experience, templates, and checklists that save time.

Inside, you'll find guidance on co-living etiquette, co-working quality standards, safety checklists for new cities, and a respectful code of conduct for cultural sites. We also host city pages for internet speed logs, SIM/eSIM options, emergency numbers, and hospital locations. Finally, we publish clearly labeled not advice sections pointing to official resources on visas, taxes, and healthcare so you can verify before you act.
