About this Community

Blind Date Club

What we do:

We host opt-in, safety-first introductions, coordinated by trusted volunteers, for people who want to meet in a relaxed, respectful way.

How it works:

Public venues - Always in safe, neutral locations.

Timeboxed meetups - Clear start and end times.

Consent-driven follow-up - Contact info is shared only if both say yes.

Why it works:

Expectations are clear before you arrive.

The environment is friendly, low-pressure, and predictable.

Feedback from participants shapes every improvement.

Our promise:

We make first meetings safe, kind, and comfortable so you can focus on the connection, not the logistics.

Sample Rules / Principles

• Aftercare and Debrief

Optional debrief offers scripts for polite declines or next steps. Hosts share resource links for healthy dating. Rationale and Boundaries: "Aftercare and Debrief" clarifies expectations so members can navigate dating...

• Harassment and Safety Response

Zero tolerance for harassment. Hosts have escalation steps and can remove participants respectfully. Rationale and Boundaries: "Harassment and Safety Response" clarifies expectations so members can navigate dating...

• Feedback and Continuous Improvement

Anonymous feedback informs pairing prompts and session timing. Hosts publish changes after each cycle. Rationale and Boundaries: "Feedback and Continuous Improvement" clarifies expectations so members can navigate...

• Accessibility and Inclusion

Hosts provide seating options and quiet corners. Participants can request lighting, sound, or mobility accommodations. Rationale and Boundaries: "Accessibility and Inclusion" clarifies expectations so members can...
