Jordan Carter for Mayor, Buford 2026

About this Community

Jordan Carter is a small-business owner, community problem solver, and father of three who was born and raised in Gwinnett County. At 46, Jordan brings a practical, sleeves-rolled-up approach to city leadership rooted in Buford's values: safety, opportunity, and accountability.

After graduating from Buford High, Jordan studied business at a Georgia public university and built a 20-year career managing operations and budgets for local companies. He later founded a Buford-based services firm that prioritizes hiring local talent, internships for high school students, and second-chance opportunities for returning citizens. That experience taught him how to balance a budget, deliver projects on time, and treat customers and employees with respect.

Jordan has coached youth sports, chaired a neighborhood association, and served on a civic advisory group focused on traffic safety near...

Sample Rules / Principles

- Civic Engagement and Youth Council

Launch a Buford Youth Council, expand volunteer boards, and create an online portal for proposals.

- Public Safety and Preparedness

Support first responders, expand community watch, and coordinate regional emergency planning.

- Infrastructure and Stormwater

Sidewalks, drainage, and maintenance first. Transparent project tracker and timelines.

- Neighborhood Quality and Code Fairness

Consistent code enforcement with clear timelines. Help for seniors and small landlords to comply.
